

We live in a hurting, needy world.

Our love for God compels us to love others.

One day Peter and John were going up to the temple at the time of prayer – at three in the afternoon. Now a man crippled from birth was being carried to the temple gate called Beautiful, where he was put every day to beg from those going into the temple courts.

Acts 3:1,2 NIV

“May my heart be broken with the things that break the heart of God.”

Bob Pierce, Founder of World Vision

There must be an awareness of the right need.

Peter looked straight at him, as did John.

Acts 3:4a NIV

My poverty puts me in touch with God’s provisions.

Then Peter said, “Silver and gold I do not have, but what I have I give you. In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, walk.”

Acts 3:6 NIV

“If you wait for perfect conditions, you will never get anything done”

Ecclesiastes 11:4 NLT

My “I can’t” must lead me to God’s “I can!”

Meeting the right need empowers people and honors God.

When all the people saw him walking and praising God, they recognized him as the same man who used to sit begging at the temple gate called Beautiful, and they were filled with wonder and amazement at what had happened to him.

Acts. 3:9-10 NIV

So let's not allow ourselves to get fatigued doing good. At the right time we will harvest a good crop if we don't give up, or quit.
